Studying abroad this Fall 2024 at the Pantheon Institute, Ava talks about how her time in Rome has impacted her academic perspective and helped transform her sense of self.

Allan Ceen, 1934-2024

We are deeply saddened to share the news that Professor Allan Ceen, a dedicated scholar and influential educator, passed away peacefully in November 2024 at the age of 90-years-old. A close friend of Pantheon Institute, and a respected figure in the field of cartography and urban design, Allan was known for his passion for knowledge and his commitment to fostering the intellectual growth of his students.

Thank you, Allan. Here and elsewhere, you will never be forgotten.

Interview with Arianna Davis

Meet Arianna Davis, a 4th-year undergraduate architecture student from Penn State University, studying at the Pantheon Institute for the Fall 2024 semester. Arianna sat down in the Pantheon Institute Gatta Studio to discuss her passion to pursue architectural studies and how her study abroad experience in Rome has evolved her understanding of physical spaces and their transformative impact on how we perceive the world.

“This experiential learning concept, it leaves a stronger impact on the material that you’re learning, it reinforces what you’re learning in the classroom.”

HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

From all of us here at Pantheon Institute in Rome, we wish you and your families a happy Thanksgiving, wherever in the world you may be!
