Visit to Villa Adriana

No orientation at Pantheon Institute is complete without a guided tour of Villa Adriana. Built in the 2nd century, the villa was Emperor Hadrian's personal retreat outside Rome. Spanning over 120 hectares, the megalithic complex combines Roman, Egyptian, and Greek design elements and includes temples, baths, private residences, an observatory, libraries, and a multitude of winding pathways and piazzas. Villa Adriana is also the site of our Premio Piranesi Design Competition! Stay tuned to see what we create!
